DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-20, drawn to an acoustic transducer implant, classified in class 607, subclass 61.
- II. Claims 21-26, drawn to an energy exchanger implant, classified in class 607, subclass 36.
- III. Claims 27-40, drawn to a method of making an energy exchanger, classified in class 29, subclass 729.
- IV. Claims 41-60, drawn to a method for acquiring data, classified in class 607, subclass 33.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions IV (process) and I and II (apparatus) are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process not involving transmitting an acoustic signal from an external transducer, but by receiving an acoustic signal from naturally occurring events, such as the heart beating.

Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not require an acoustic transducer or more than one transducer. The subcombination has separate utility such as an energy converter not requiring a substrate having an opening with the pressure sensor having an active area exposed via the opening, but having the pressure sensor in a catheter in the area to be measured.

Inventions III (process of making) and I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different products not requiring a pressure sensor for measuring intra-body pressures in an implant system but used for supplying energy to an implant system that measures V-V intervals and intracardiac electrograms.

Inventions III and IV are different methods and are therefore independent and distinct.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to David Burse on 5/02/03 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Art Unit: 3762

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
